

The STUDENT SPOTLIGHT

It's no secret that TMA has been blessed with some remarkable students!
It is our privilege to feature some of our seniors who have achieved great accomplishments!

Congratulations to David Wohlever on being recognized as a National Merit Commended Student for his outstanding academic promise. Commended students are named on the basis of their PSAT/NMSQT Selection Index Score. Some commended students become candidates for special scholarships sponsored by corporations and businesses. Congratulations, David!

Congratulations to the following seniors who received college acceptances in October and November!

Unusual Scholarship Opportunities

Duck Brand Duct Tape Stuck at Prom Contest

This contest is open to students age 14 years or older who are attending a high school prom in the spring and are U.S. citizens. Entrants must enter as a couple (two individuals) and attend a high school prom wearing complete attire or accessories made from duct tape and include a color photograph of their duct tape attire in their entry. The winning couple will be selected based on a variety of criteria, including originality, workmanship, quantity of Duck Tape used, use of colors, and creative use of accessories. Visit the website for more details:

Tall Clubs International Scholarship

Tall Clubs International (TCI) offers a $1,000 scholarship for tall people, and individual chapters may also offer local awards. Women who are at least 5'10" and men who are at least 6'2" as well as under 21 years old with plans to attend college in the fall are eligible to apply. Visit <http://tall.org/tci-acts/scholarships-2/> for more details

AFSA Scholarship Program

American Fire Sprinkler Association Scholarship Program

Automatic fire sprinklers save lives and property. We cannot say it enough. We all know what happens when sprinklers aren't present - a building catches on fire and we wait for the fire department to put it out. But what happens when fire sprinklers are present? That's what we want you to find out and that's what these contests are all about. 2014 - 2015 High School Seniors may enter this contest for the opportunity to win 1 of 10 $2,000 Scholarship. Visit <http://www.afsascholarship.org/> for more details!

UF Young Entrepreneurs for Leadership & Sustainability

The UF Young Entrepreneurs for Leadership & Sustainability summer program gives college bound high school students the opportunity to live, work, eat, and play on the campus of the University of Florida for five weeks each summer while learning about entrepreneurship and social entrepreneurship, being inspired to solve social problems, and practicing sustainability. We empower students to become leaders and change makers.

Applications available on January 5, 2015

Application deadline: March 1, 2015

The Vegetarian Resource Group

HEALTH | ENVIRONMENT | ETHICS

The Vegetarian Resource Group (VRG) offers scholarships each year to graduating U.S. high school seniors who have promoted vegetarianism in their schools and communities. The application requires an essay about how the applicant promoted vegetarianism in their high school or community. Please visit <http://www.vrg.org/student/scholar.htm> for more details.

National Make It Yourself with Wool Competition

The National Make It Yourself with Wool (NMIYWW) competition awards scholarships for knitting wool garments. Winners are selected based on the appropriateness to the contestant's lifestyle, coordination of fabric/yarn with garment style and design, contestant's presentation and creativity. Visit <http://www.makeitwithwool.com/> for more details.

Young Leaders Conference

Congratulations to the following students who were nominated by high school faculty to attend the 8th Annual Youth Leaders Conference at the University of Florida:

Hunter Goodrich	Natalie Noble
Ally Kissenberth	Leah Singleton
Aliyah Lewis	Emma Starcher
Tommy Lower	Michael Tannous
Robert Marant	Adam Whelan
Branson Mann	Emily Woo

This conference will bring Florida's most outstanding student leaders together at the University of Florida campus for extensive leadership development. Interactive workshops and seminars will allow the participants to improve their leadership theory and experiences. Students will also attend presentations given by the University of Florida student leaders and administrators. In addition, they will have the opportunity to engage in several team-building and service-learning activities designed to challenge each
